Festival of Lights at Mike's Farm

WELCOME TO Jacksonville, NC

Receive a hero's welcome

We salute your decision to join us! In Jacksonville, NC, you'll receive a hero's welcome. The proud home of US Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune, our base is the largest Marine base in the Eastern United States. Nearby, Marine Corps Air Station New River hosts the 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing. Hospitality, a patriotic spirit and military pride embrace you here.

Get on the water. Jacksonville Landing at 135 South Marine Blvd. offers fishing and recreational vehicles easy access to the New River. We invite you to fish, paddle and swim here. Spring through fall, come aboard Bayonet Cruises private yacht charter for a lunch or sunset adventure. We're famous for speckled trout and more; spend a day casting for fun with our fishing guides. They provide everything.

Hearts race with sports and running. You'll find no shortage of athletic challenges here, from the Grand Prix Series strength and endurance races hosted aboard Camp Lejeune to our New River Splash Triathlon. Nail biting soccer, softball, boxing and other tournaments find their way to Jacksonville throughout the year.

Savor the globe. Dine at our authentic ethnic restaurants started by families who visited the area and stayed or relocated here after service at Camp Lejeune. Choose from a worldwide selection of craft beer and wine for your visit at Wines & Wares or drop by The Milk Road for Liège waffles and single-origin coffee pour-overs.

Western boulevard hosts a wide variety of attractively priced brand name hotels and restaurants. Our “strip” caters to the tastes of traveling military personnel and families from across America. We offer a collection of chain retail and dining here you may not have encountered, even in larger cities.

Enjoy family time. Parks of all sizes and extensive bike paths invite families to get outdoors. Head about 30 minutes south to North Topsail Beach or east to experience four miles of pristine beach on Bear Island, part of Hammocks Beach State Park. (Check the state park website for ferry information to Bear Island before you go.) Cracked It! Escape Games and Altitude Trampoline Park offer places to burn off energy and bond. Zing Zumm provides an afternoon of fun for little ones.

See Ospreys in nests and in the sky. Pause when you hear the rumbling of the MV-22 Osprey flying overhead. With the ability to fly like a plane and take off and land like a helicopter, this aircraft was largely developed in Jacksonville. When near the water’s edge, you may catch a flash of live osprey (a large hawk that lives near the water) diving into the river or sound for a fish. Onslow County boasts one of the highest concentrations of ospreys of either kind on the eastern seaboard.

LEJEUNE Memorial Gardens

Stroll our public gardens and visit our memorials

Each memorial connects the story of our country to this city and to American life today. Develop a new appreciation for the sacrifices of our service men and women—and their families—when you walk these winding paths.

Lejeune Memorial Gardens includes the Beirut Memorial, the Onslow Vietnam Veterans Memorial, the Montford Point Marine Memorial and 9/11 Memorial Beam from the World Trade Center. You'll also walk by the world's largest 3-D Eagle, Globe and Anchor. Park for free at the entrance on Montford Landing Road.

Beirut Memorial

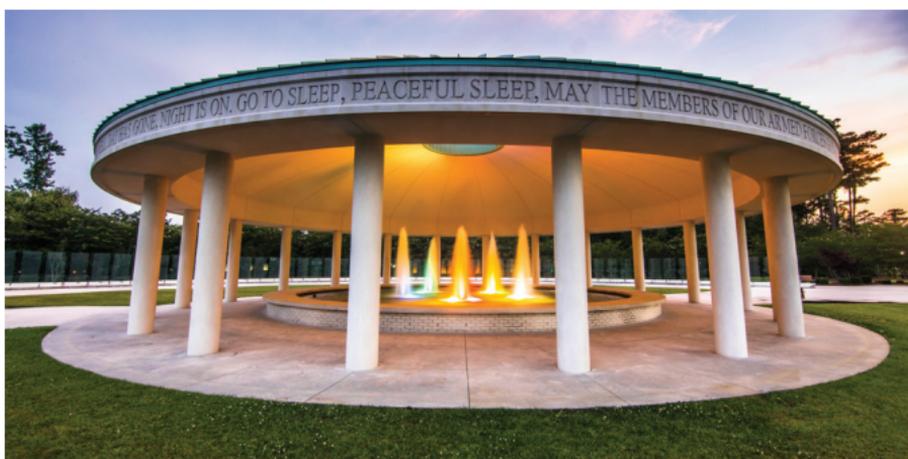

With the exception of soldiers from Paris, all of the Marines killed at the Beirut Bombing on October 23, 1983 in Lebanon were based at Camp Lejeune.

The bombing is now viewed as the opening salvo in the War on Terrorism. The words "They Came In Peace" reflect how the men on assignment were present as peacekeepers. The names of each man lost are engraved in granite.

Vietnam Veterans Memorial

The memorial honors the men and women who served in the Vietnam War. The second largest Vietnam Veterans Memorial in the nation, the dome and fountain are surrounded with a glass wall. The names of 58,220 lost Americans are etched in the glass in alphabetical order.

Montford Point Marine Memorial

The Montford Point Marine Memorial is dedicated to the legacy of nearly 20,000 Black Marines who served in the Marine Corps from 1942 to 1949. They trained separately from their white counterparts at Montford Point Camp, now known as Camp Johnson. The memorial tells the story through architecture and sculpture. The statue indicates their uphill climb toward equality. The wall of 20,000 stars reflects the unknown names. No official record survives.

9/11 Memorial Beam

Delivered by a New York City Fire Truck, this beam from the Twin Towers was presented by police and firefighters of New York to Camp Lejeune in 2003. The first responders recognized that the Marines were the first deployed in the global war on terror. The beam honors the 343 firefighters who perished on September 11, 2001.

Address: 125 Montford Landing Rd., Jacksonville

Hours: Open every day, 24 hours a day. No charge.
The gardens are lit at night.
