LEJEUNE MEMORIAL GARDENS

Lejeune Memorial Gardens is a tribute to the sacrifices made in the name of freedom and our Marine Corps heritage. This monument garden includes the Museum of the Marine Plaza and the largest dimensional sculpture of the Eagle, Globe & Anchor symbol of the Marine Corps. Accessible by the Lejeune Greenway & Trail as well as parking off Montford Landing Road at Lejeune Boulevard, the Gardens host retirements, re-enlistments and various observances during the year. The Gardens are an essential visit to appreciate the unique relationship of world events and our community.

9/11 MEMORIAL

Delivered by a New York City Fire Truck, the "Leather Helmets of the Fire Service", presented one of the first beams to the "Leathernecks" of Camp Lejeune in 2003. They reconized that the Marines were the first in to the War on Terror and offered that they honored the 343 firefighters who perished September 11, 2001.

On September 11, Patriot Day, the community gathers at "The Beam" for the annual Patriot Day Observance, remembering victims, first responders and military members who perished as a result of the 9/11 terrorist attacks and in the continued fight against terrorism around the world.

BEIRUT MEMORIAL

The Beirut Memorial serves as a solemn tribute to 273 Marines, sailors and soldiers who gave the last full measure of devotion in Lebanon on October 23, 1983. The names of each man are engraved in granite along with the words "They Came In Peace." It is the largest military memorial constructed entirely from private funds.

Each year, a Remembrance Observance takes place on October 23 at the Beirut Memorial to remember those who gave the greatest sacrifice for their country. The Beirut Memorial is open to the public.

MONTFORD POINT MARINES MEMORIAL

The newest edition to Lejeune Memorial Gardens, the Montford Point Marine Memorial honors the first African-Americans to serve in the US Marine Corps. Segregated at nearby Montford Point, now Camp Johnson, the Memorial gives tribute to the estimated 20,000 who "Fought for the right to Fight."

Each year close to August 26, the Montford Point Marine Association is supported by Marine Corps Combat Service Support Schools to conduct an event to present the Gold Medal to original Montford Point Marines (or their surviving next of kin) and recognizing all Montford Point Marines for their sacrifice and service. Check the website for specific annual dates.

VIETNAM VETERANS MEMORIAL

The second largest Vietnam Veterans Memorial in the nation and one of only a few that lists all the names of the fallen. The Memorial is defined by a glass wall with the etched names of those MIA, POW or who died in Vietnam in alphabetical order. The Memorial includes an entry wall with symbols for all branches of the military, a walkway and bridge of French design to honor their involvement in Vietnam, and a domed fountain.

Each year the fourth Saturday in April there is a Vietnam Recognition Day Ceremony marking the day the last US troops left Vietnam. This ceremony is held at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

FREEDOM FOUNTIAN

A gateway to downtown Jacksonville and a connector to the Lejeune Memorial Gardens, the Freedom Fountain is dedicated to all those who have passed through Onslow County while in service to our country. Flags and fountain jets representing federal, state, and local governments are featured as well as water jets to represent each of the 50 states. Five flagpoles were added in 2015 and proudly fly the flags of all branches of the military. Visiting the fountain at night? Check out our colors!

SUGGESTED TOURS

Wine, Whiskey and Wonderful Eats
Wine, whiskey and wonderful eats will warm your belly when you taste your way through Onslow County. Get a taste of family tradition in homemade corn whiskey or apple pie moonshine at Walton's Distillery or enjoy the Carolina sunshine for a wine tasting at Huffman's Vineyard. Later, sit back and enjoy good ole' Southern cooking topped with a piece of mouth-watering layered chocolate cake straight from Mike's Farm. When you leave us, you will be full of a new type of freedom found Only In Onslow.

History Highway: Past to Present
Encompassing two counties, take a journey from the beginning of America's military history to the present. From Moore's Creek National Battlefield to the Lejeune Memorial Gardens outside of Camp Lejeune, relive significant moments and honor those who gave for our country. Don't worry if you hear some aircrafts and a little artillery, it's the sounds of freedom.

Lejeune Memorial Gardens
Feel freedom when you visit Jacksonville, home to MCB Camp Lejeune and MCAS New River, in Onslow County. Discover Lejeune Memorial Gardens with a tour of the memorials honoring those who served. From the Montford Point Marines to the Vietnam Veterans or the Beirut Memorial and the 9/11 Beam, this location serves as a tribute to remember and reflect. Before leaving, take in the largest existing sculptural representation of the emblem and insignia of the Marine Corps, the Eagle, Globe and Anchor.

African-American Heritage Trail
Onslow County celebrates the heritage and accomplishments of local African-American leaders, communities, history, arts and cultures. Always growing, this trail ventures throughout our various communities. Take a drive through our African-American history at www.onlyinonslow.com
